Born into a family of celebrated artists, Alexandra's grandfather was an internationally acclaimed etcher and her father, a sculptor, gave her a unique awareness of form and space that is manifest in her work. A painter, print maker, sculptor, and art professor, Alexandra has a Master of Fine Arts and has studied at the Sorbonne, Paris, and Oxford University, England. Her work spans over twenty years and she is known for unique visual imagery in her paintings and prints and her ability to "capture the moment". She has taught art at college and university in Toronto and more recently in Beaufort and Hilton Head. She exhibits regularly at the Hilton Head Art League Gallery, Mars the Real Estate Store, Hilton Head Is., SC, and at the Charles Street Gallery, Beaufort, SC.

A lifetime member of the American art honorary, Delta Phi Delta, Alexandra is also a founding member of the Multi Media Arts Guild, Kingston, Canada, long time member of Ontario Woodcarvers Association, and active member of the Hilton Head Art League, and the Apple Pie Painters.
